take the ram Arkanas, I forward the following, which enters somewhat more into particulars. The incidents were communicated to the editor of the Bulletin by one of the most careful and reliable of northern newspaper correspondents, and in the main are correct. It was agreed between Commodore Elist, Commodore Darks, and Commodore Elist, Commodore Darks, and Commodore Farmast, that in united efforts should be made to run ashore and capture the Arkanasa. The time agreed upon was last Wednesday morning. The plan was for Commodore Darks to send the guaboats Benton, Ciscinnati, and Louisville, and the ram Bragg to engage the land batteries, while the guaboat Easex was to approach the Arkanasa stabore, and grapple her, the ram Queen of the West meantims to but her from the rear. Commodore Farraguit's fleet was to operate from below, and if it became necessary, to send the Sumptor up to assist. By daybreak on Wednesday morning everything was in readlaces, and by 5 o'clock the guaboats were already on the move.

The gunboate Benton, Cincinnati and Louis The gunboats Beston, Cincinnati and Louisville first moved out to engage the land batteries. They were followed by the gunboat Essex, which was to draw the Arkanass out and grapple her. The last to move was the Queen of the West. Commodore Ellett, on getting round Louisians Point, in view of the Arkanasa, was astonished to find that the Essex, so far from carrying out her part of the agreement, fired three shots, and was already three-quayters of a mile below the Arkanasa, and still pursuing her course down the river.
On passing the Benton, Commodore Davis put his head to the port-hole and said, something, which, from the sound and the strange conduct of the Essex, was construed into an order to "go back." Immediately Commogines; but when the Benton approa was found that what was thought a new order was only a benediction of "Good luck!"
"Good luck!"
All this occurred in the midst of a galling fire from the land batteries.

The Queen of the West now started down again to engage the Arkansas single handed. The Arkansas meiantime had prepared herself for the contest. Her head was now turned up stream and her stern in shore, so as to use guns on both sides effectually. The Queen of the West now made agailant ran down stream, in the midst of a perfect rain of fire and lead, but was compelled, from the position of the This she did, striking the Arkansas aft the direct, but a sort of glancing shot, and very was that they further resolved to raise a regiment of infantry, and now that is about distely drew back and ran ashore at Vicksthe fire grating.

There were several remarkable shots during the engragement, but we must content ourselves with tracing the course of one, as follows: It was a $2-pound bail. It entered the after starnoard, raked every state-room in the cabin, went through an iron safe in the clerk's office, shattered agon carriage at the bow, made an indentation on the breech of the gun, rebounded, and slightly wounded Lieut. Hinter.

We learn that Com. Davis has been sick for two weeks past. Indeed, there is said to be much sickness in the fleet, almost everybody being represented as indisposed. In consequence of which fact, it is understood that the fleet purpose changing poeltion to the mouth of Taxoo River.

Farraguit's fleet has gone below, with the exception of three vessels, which remained to protect the Essex and Sumter, boats which ram by and could not get back.

The Queen of the West started up the river last Friday to undergo repairs. At both Carolina landing and Greenaville, she was fired into from rebel batteries. The rebets appear to have a battery of several quas at Greensville, and poured a most destructive for upon the Queen, which was struck not less than forty times with cannon's and musket. This was on Saturday afternoon. The Queen had her escape pipe knocked off, and received several disastrous shots. In fact, her upper works were well riddled with cannon and musket that the started of the sharpshooters named Thomas W. Spenoer, from Chedmantal, and slightly wounded Jasius H. In reiterating the expression which has been the beading of our letters for the past ten days or two weeks, "All quiet at our encanpment on the James Biver," we are but stating existing facts.

Never, at least in the experience of those who have been with this portion of our grand army since the breaking out of this secursed rebellion, has it been a dull, as quiet, and, I might with truth add, as lary as at the present time.

NO MOVE AT PRESENT.

But a few days since appearances indicated that some slight movement was on the "slate." But the necessity for that movement seems now to have vanished, and consequently matters here have dwindled down into that quiescent state as above indicated, while all are wondering what will be the next move and how soon.

Our impression is, and it seems to be generally so conceded, that beyond the fact that recounciessances may be ordered at any moment, the latter part of August next will indus here located, unless it may so impose that "secesh" should get saucy and sex for another thrashing, or that you in the loyal states harry up those reinforcements promised us.

him as well as they did Gen. McDowell, who previously commanded this part of the armyon account of his swertly. The order is now to take what is wanted for the use of the ERNST PRUSSING. to take what is wasted for the use of the army, and what we do not want to burn up. It is the best order that has yet been given to the army, as it will let the rebels who continue to be such know that we mean to treat them as if they were in the field fighting against us.

We can see the good effects of the order already. In the robel towas in the valley of Virginia, a great many more of them are taking the ostal of allegiance to the Union than formerly, because if they don't they will get to pay for what we take from them. During this part of the proceeding, a little, incident occurred which serves to indicate the malicious feclings yet rankling in the bosoms of the treacherous "butterauts" in camp. As the Governor and party were passing by a large crowd of rebel prisoners, near the "White Oak," two of the chivalrous individuals had the affrontery to cry out, "Hurrah for Jeff Davis; and d—n the men that oppose him!" In a moment, Col. Tucker ordered the entire crowd to be put under arrest. They were then marched to headquarters, where the Colonel demanded to know which were the offenders, declaring that unless they immediately made themselves know which were the offenders, declaring that unless they immediately made themselves known, the whole party would be dealt with as if guilty. This had the desired effect. Two fellows who belong to one of the Ten-nessee regiments, confersed that they were the offenders, whereupon they were sent to METEOROLOGICAL.—The following is the state of the thermometer for the week ending July 19th, as kept by E. "Perhaps it might be possible that companies or regiments now organizing could be induced to join the army divising now under my command. I marthat Col. Peisser is already arthorized in New York State to raise a regiment. If it can be done, I shall be glad to have it attached to our division. The same wish I expressed in the case of licker, now organizing a regiment in lillinois."

We do not deem it improper to state that General Sigel expressed in a letter to his old friend, Col. Hecker, the sincere desire to have in his division the new Hecker regiment now organizing in this State under his command, and that the Colonel accepted this offer with the greatest enthusiasm. We don't not Gyr. I have known Capt. Holden for nearly fourteen years. During the past year I have served with him in Missouri, Kentucky, and Tennessoe. At the battle of Fort Dorelson he faced with unflinching bravery, a ctorm of reheigballets that in a few minutes killed and disabled half of our company. At Shitch he was equally courageous. He has been trained in the best of all schools—the school At themen in we equally courageous. He has been trained in the best of all achools—the school of caperience. Judging the future by my experience of the past, I am certain he will make a most trustworthy and efficient officer; and I would carneally advise those of our citizens intending to subter to go with Capt. Holden, and they will not regret the choice; for I have been shoulder to shoulder with him in battle, and know him to be a good redesire and a gentleman—free from that dominaering spirit so prevalent among those to command, and always attending to the wants of his failow soldiers.

He has served his country bravely and faithfully during the past affects mouths, and I hope he will soon be enabled to act in his present enlarged expacity. Let him be furnished with a company of good and faithful men and he will give a good account of them and himself.

I have written this for the benefit of those wishing to enliet in the service of their country, and if it should meet your approval I would be much pleased to have you insert it in your excellent paper.

THE BESEL PROGRAMME The story of the Memphis Bulletin, pub-lished elsewhere, concerning the rebel pro-gramme of the fall campaign; must be A Historical sketch of all the Fort Bus ter. Malled, proper particular section with the control of the control taken with grains of allowance. We pre-sume there is this much truth in it, that they intend to fight us as hard as they can, and indict as much injury upon us as pos-sible. But it assets ce, 25 conts Stamps telm 5 and conts WANTED-To trade on sible. But it needs no ghost, or other mysious agency, to tell us this.

HICHARDSON.

The Secession organ says that when Richardson dedged the vote on the Illians and attengan canal only was opposed to the bill. We undertake to say that this is not true. Will the Cicago Times please point out the chapter and verse in the Clobe where the pair was announced, and name the man who constituted the other and of the pair? If Richardson had been paired at all it would have been with some friend al! it would have been with some

VOTE ON THE NEW CONSTITU-TION.

We publish this morning the official vote of the State by counties on the New Con-stitution, the Bank clause and the Conssional Apportionment. The figures copied from the returns in the office of he Secretary of State. The majority against the Constitution is 13,880, without counting the soldiers' vote. The majority sgainst the Bank clause is 6,040, and against the Congressional Apportionment

GEN. HALLECR'S POSITION. The statement in our special Washington dispatch of yesterday, that Gen. Halleck is heartily in favor of seizing all rebel prop-erty and freeing their slaves, is confirmed by the correspondent of the Associated Press. The correspondents of the New York World and Cincinnati Commercial dso assert the same. We cannot doubt erefore, that such is the fact. It behoove ose Democrats who have justly regarded Gen. Halleck as one of the most shining on his shoulders the vast responsibil of saving the country in its present peril. TORIES IN ILLINOIS. Courier that when the news of the guerilla Morgan's recent exploies reached that place a gang of teries rode through the streets with impunity, cheering for Mor-gan, Jeff. Davis, and the Southern Conderacy. We are informed that a similar scene was enacted in Vandalia. We have received a letter from Union county, stating that the secon-sionists there have become highly rampant and talk of driving Union men out of e county; also that a rebel flag was sisted in one of the towns there recently, and kept flying all day. It strikes us that the sooner the militia of Illinois are mobilized and put on the track of these cow boys, the better. Reported Invasion of Hillardis by Guer-

A dispatch from Quincy, posted at the Tra-mont House last evening, says that a band of 50 guerillas crossed the river from Missouri or Friday, and shot a merchant, at a place called Canton, for the purpose of obtaining some arms in his presenting and they called Canton, for the purpose of obtaining some arms in his possession, and that they then plundered his store and varioused. Insemnch as our regular dispatches make no mention of the circumstance, and as there is no town named Canton in that; part of the State, we are inclined to doubt the story. There is, however, a Canton in Missouri, not far from Quincy. In case the report should prove true, we suggest that Richardson be immediately sent home to "conciliste" the mundarers.

lights of their party, to consider well the position which he has taken, while bearing

On Saturday, the largest meeting over held at Valparaise was addressed by Mesars. Hathaway and Coffix. Recruiting is going on finely in Northern Indiana, and their new regiments will be full within two weeks.
